Rovidx announcement - platform closure

We want to inform you that Ground Zero Radio and Aftermath Media will officially shut down on March 1, 2025. This was a difficult decision, but as Rovidx Media transitions away from broadcasting, we must begin the process of winding down the platform.

This passage documents Rovidx's announced March 1 shutdown date. It does not establish Clyde's consent, a signed exit settlement, the legal effect of termination, or completion of the shutdown. The full announcement includes other statements that this selected excerpt does not reproduce or endorse.
